WHEN the frost comes and the snow flies, let our northern friends remember that at Ocala they can find a retreat where it is perpetual sunshine, green lawns and ever-blooming flowers. Come and see.

An exchange tells of a man who stopped his paper and wrote to the editor as follows: "I think people autent to spend their muny for papurs mi dady didnt and everybody sed he was the inteligentest man in the kentry and had the smart-est famly of boise that ever dug taters."

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

Men Who Know Say They Are Improving,

E. L. Brannon, contracting agent for Sells Bros.' show, in conversation with a STAR reporter this morning, said that they expected to do well in Florida. They will show at six places—Jacksonville, Palatka, Orlando, Tampa, Ocala and Gainesville. When asked if he thought times were improving, he said they were very much. "Several months ago," said he, "we sent our men through the state to every town of any importance and a great many small ones, and all through the country among the farmers, and found everything looking blue, and people disheartened; and now when we go through the state we find a big crop of everything except the citrus fruits, the people encouraged over the present and future prospects of your state. The people seem to be just waking up to a realization of what they can do."

"No," said he, "six months ago we could not have made expenses here."
